

How it works

- Medicaid is a 50/50 state/federal partnership
- Hospitals pay a provider fee to the State
- The State uses the money to draw a federal match
- Provider fee and the federal match are paid to providers – increased rates/expanded coverage and eligibility
- Fee is an alternative to spending state general fund dollars to acquire federal matching dollars